Keep the Kids Reading This Summer!

The Summer Reading Challenge: Story Garden is a fun, free way to help children keep up their reading skills over the long summer break.

Just six books over the holidays can make a huge difference to your child's confidence and enjoyment of reading.

- Sign up for FREE at your local Cornwall Library from Saturday 5th July

- Fun stickers, rewards, and events

- Open to all 4-11-year-olds of all reading levels – we have resources for children with dyslexia and visual impairments

Attached with this update is a list of activities happening at the library this summer, which are all free.
